Carroll businesses saluted

November 10, 2009 – Westminster, MD - For the third year in a row, the Department of Economic Development and the Carroll County Chamber of Commerce joined together to salute successful and growing Carroll businesses. A special awards program was held at The Portico of St. John in Westminster on November 5th.

Economic Development chose the following categories and award winners: Agriculture – Serpent Ridge Vineyard; Business Expansion – Integral Components, Inc; Development Award - Chesapeake Realty Partners, The Shoppes at Meadow Creek; Redevelopment Award - Bruce D'Anthony for Tuscany Square and CBI Development Group, LLC for 114 S. Main Street, Mt. Airy; Small Business Award – Theresa A. Daytner, Daytner Construction Group; Tourism Industry Award - SERRV Gift Shop; and Workforce Development Award - Northrop Grumman Electronic Systems.

Director Lawrence Twele said “During these difficult economic times it is especially important for us to honor and recognize the valuable contributions that these businesses make to Carroll County. Capital investment and job creation drives local economic growth. The efforts of these outstanding businesses are essential to bolstering our local economy.”

The Chamber of Commerce recognized seven businesses in the following categories: “Small Business of the Year with 1-5 Employees” award was given to Aquino & Wolfpoff Financial Group, LLC.

“Small Business of the Year with 6-50 Employees” awards went to Miller’s Minuteman Press, Advance – The Document Specialists and Carroll County Waste Services.

And the Chamber’s “Small Business of the Year with 51-200 Employees” was awarded to New Windsor State Bank, Salerno’s Restaurant & Catering and Tevis Oil, Inc.
