Federal Stimulus Funding Information Available

May 27, 2009 – The Carroll County Department of Economic Development has added a valuable information page about the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) to its www.carrollbiz.org website. Listed under Business Assistance, the ARRA page links viewers to federal, state and local sites which provide specifics on investment dollars flowing into Maryland and Carroll County. Business contracting opportunities and business support services to aid business owners in preparing for government contracting opportunities are also featured.

“The Maryland Department of Business & Economic Development is taking an aggressive role in identifying State and Federal contracts for businesses and provides this information on the State websites that are listed. We also provide links to the primary federal ARRA sites and specific business support agencies like the Small Business Administration and Maryland Small Business Center network,” said Director of Economic Development Larry Twele. “We want Carroll businesses to be informed about potential grant and business opportunities related to the American Recovery & Reinvestment Act and quick access to information is critical”, Twele further stated.
