County relocation web page posted

July 21, 2009 – The Carroll County Department of Economic Development added a comprehensive “Welcome to Carroll County” relocation information page to its www.carrollbiz.org website. Listed under the Quality of Life section, the relocation page links viewers to information about Carroll demographics, real estate, towns, schools and utility service providers plus much more. Economic Development Director Larry Twele, CEcD added “Most people today conduct research via the internet for all types of information, especially when considering moving to a new area. We have conveniently assembled the information together in an easy to use format so families and individuals that are interested in moving to Carroll County can find the information that they need.”

Economic Development also maintains an extensive Data Center on its website and the Bureau of Tourism showcases the County’s tourist attractions and area events at www.carrollcountytourism.org.
