“BRAC: Basics for Business” Conference

Westminster, Maryland – Over the last several years, the term BRAC (Base Realignment and Closure Act) has become a part of everyday language for some and a source of confusion for others. What exactly is BRAC and how will it impact you and your community?

To help answer these questions, on Tuesday, May 11, 2010, the Carroll County Department of Economic Development will host a “BRAC: Basics for Business” informational conference. Featured speakers include Kent Menser of the Howard County BRAC Business Initiative and Tim O’Ferrall of the Ft. Meade Alliance. Speakers will discuss their organizations and how they are helping their local communities understand, prepare and benefit from BRAC.

The conference will be held in Building K at Carroll Community College from 8:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. There is no fee for the event but registration is required. Please register at www.carrollbiz.org or call 410-386-2070 for more information.
